LINCOLNIANA

THE PRESENT CATALOGUE CONTAINS UNDOUBTEDLY THE LARGEST AND FINEST COLLECTION OF LINCOLNIANA EVER OFFERED FOR SALE BY ANY AMERICAN BOOKSELLER, AND COMPRISES MANY UNIQUE PIECES WHICH CAN NEVER OCCUR FOR SALE AGAIN.

AMONGST THEM ARE MANY EXCEEDINGLY RARE BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS ISSUED DURING LINCOLN'S LIFE TIME. THEY ONLY APPEARED IN VERY SMALL EDITIONS AND BY FAR THE GREATEST NUMBER OF COPIES WHICH NOW SURVIVE, HAVE BEEN ABSORBED INTO THE COLLECTIONS OF THE GREAT PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND MANY OTHER PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS OF AMERICA.

THE LINCOLN LETTERS AND AUTOGRAPH DOCUMENTS HERE DESCRIBED ARE ALL OF PARTICULAR VALUE AND INTEREST. THEY HAVE ALWAYS BEEN SCARCE, AND AFTER THE VERY ASSIDUOUS SEARCH THAT HAS BEEN MADE FOR THEM BY COLLECTORS DURING THE LAST THIRTY YEARS IT IS RARELY POSSIBLE THAT ANY MORE OF LINCOLN'S WRITINGS OF IMPORTANCE CAN NOW COME TO LIGHT.

THE NUMBER OF TRIBUTES TO LINCOLN'S GENIUS AND PERSONALITY PRONOUNCED AND WRITTEN BY HIS CONTEMPORARIES AND THE MOST PROMINENT MEN OF THE 19TH CENTURY IS EXTREMELY LARGE AND COMPREHENSIVE.

BOOKS DEVOTED TO ACCOUNTS OF LINCOLN'S DEATH, THE PURSUIT, ARREST AND TRIALS OF THE CONSPIRATORS ARE HERE ALSO VERY COMPLETELY REPRESENTED.

OF SUPREME IMPORTANCE ALSO ARE THE TWO BEAUTIFUL LIFE SIZE PORTRAITS, ONE IN CRAYONS AND THE OTHER IN OILS, OF THE MARTYR PRESIDENT.

"The Lincoln Cult is only in its Infancy. It has had but a single generation in which to grow but as the Perspective of Time brings into Grander Relief the Noble proportions of its Subject, Homage and Admiration for him will be bounded only by the Civilized World."

The President died at 7.22."* Further on he describes an interview between General Wallace and President Lincoln on the Mexican question—"The object is to drive the French and Maximilian from the Country. Wallace proposed the matter to the President. He liked the idea but said go to Grant. Grant approved and said so in a letter. In a private interview with the president the latter said I suppose it is right we should help the oppressed. But, he said, 'Young Man do you know what you are asking. It is to involve us in War perhaps with all Europe.' He threw himself on the Sofa ran his fingers through his hair for some minutes in much agitation. He said 'this is the Argument of the thing, don't get caught. Go to Seward and Senator Lane. He did not. He received proper instructions from Grant and went away from the Texan Border with his Staff. He is now here to report to Grant and do what may be done to aid Mexico" etc. Written on 25 pages. 12mo, original stiff paper wrappers. Richmond. April, 1865. $100.00 ber for this month was duly received for which please accept my thanks. Of course I am not the most impartial judge; yet with due allowance for this, I venture to hope that the Article entitled the 'President's Policy' will be of value to the Country. I fear I am not quite worthy of all which is therein kindly said of me personally. The Sentence of 12 lines commencing at the top of page 252, I could wish to be not exactly as it is. In what is there expressed, the writer has not correctly understood me. I have never had a theory that Secession could absolve States or People from their obligations. Precisely the Contrary is asserted in the Inaugural Address; and it was because of my belief in the continuation of those OBLIGATIONS, that I was puzzled, for a time as to denying the legal RIGHTS of those Citizens who remained individually innocent of Treason or Rebellion. But I mean no more now than to merely call attention to this point. Yours respectfully A. Lincoln." Washington Jan 16, 1864.

FINE AUTOGRAPH OF THE FIRST LINCOLN PARTNERSHIP.

681. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Answer of Thomas Cassidy, defendant to the bill of complaint of Joseph C. Foster. 6 pages, 4to. Springfield, 1837. $350.00

The statement is entirely in Lincoln's hand and signed by Thomas Cassidy in addition to the firm signature of STUART AND LINCOLN. Documents executed during Lincoln's first partnership are more desirable than those of his later associations and very much rarer on account of the scarcity of their cases and their struggle for recognition at the bar. The Document shows the suit to have been an exceptionally complicated Land Case even for the Illinois Courts, and it is also of exceptional interest as having incorporated in it one of the "Jokes," (perhaps the First and only Legal Lincoln paper to do so) that "Uncle Abe" later on became world famous for. According to both Lamon and Herndon, Lincoln actually wrote but a very small Number of Legal Papers.

682. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Document entirely in the Autograph of Lincoln, signed by Mary and Richard Anderson, in relation to an Estate. 4to. May 26th, 1837. $250.00

"Whereas Stephen T. Logan, John T. Stuart and A. Lincoln have engaged to prosecute the said suit as attorneys for the said heirs, we, the subscribers, being the widow and one of the sons of the said Anderson deceased, agree to give to the said Logan, Stuart and Lincoln one-half of the said piece of ground for their services, provided they recover the ground; but are not bound to pay anything unless the said piece of ground be recovered. ....."

One of the most sensational of Lincoln's First Law Cases. According to the Account of it in Nicolay and Hay's Works (pages 57-64) charges of Fraud and Forgery were unsparingly brought against Lincoln and his Partners by Gen. Adams the defendant in the suit.

683. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Precipe and Bond in the Case of Albert G. Williams against John M. and George L. Cabaniss. Both entirely in Lincoln's writing. The First signed by him "Stuart and Lincoln" and the Bond signed "A. Lincoln." In this he entered himself Security for all Costs in the Case and engaged to pay same to the opposite party or the Officers of the Court. On one page 4to. Sangamon Circuit, 1838. $100.00

684. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Affidavit entirely in Lincoln's writing in the case of Benjamin Lockwood against William H. Wernway for debts. 14 lines, 4to. Sangamon Co., 1839. $50.00

A rather Early Lincoln Legal Document.

RARE "STUART AND LINCOLN" AUTOGRAPH.

685. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in Lincoln's autograph throughout, in the suit of John Kerr and Augustus Kerr, Plaintiffs, David Prickett, Defendant, to recover $2,661.77 upon Promissory Notes. Signed "STUART & LINCOLN." 2 pages. Folio. Sangamon Circuit Court, 1839. $125.00

The Copy of the Note which was incorporated by Lincoln in his Complaint shows that it was dated May 1st, 1837, and payable one day after date.

686. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Bill in Chancery. The Suit of Richard D. Wood, John Yarrow, Horatio C. Wood, James Abbott and Josiah Bacon vs. Emery C. Ross. The document is entirely in Lincoln's autograph, with the exception of the signature of N. A. Rankin, guarantor. Lincoln has signed the Deed "Stuart and Lincoln Complainant's Solicitors." 2 full page folios. Sangamon County Circuit Court, 1839. $150.00

Like all the Early Stuart and Lincoln Papers of extreme Rarity. A specially desirable specimen.

687. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in the case of James Ditson against Logan McMurry to recover the sum of $100.00 due on a promissory note given by the latter and payable "ONE DAY after date with twelve per cent interest from date until paid." Finely written throughout in Lincoln's Hand and signed by him "Stuart and Lincoln." 2 pages. Folio. Sangamon County Circuit Court, 1840. $75.00

An exceptionally fine Specimen of the Autograph of the First Lincoln Law Firm.

VERY FINE "LOGAN AND LINCOLN" AUTOGRAPH.

688. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in the case of Robert Allen against Cyrus G. Saunders for the failure to pay $4,000, the sum of indebtedness of Saunders to Allen for the lease of the Globe Hotel in Springfield. The document is signed "LOGAN AND LINCOLN" and entirely in the latter's autograph. 2 full pages. 4to. Sangamon Circuit Court, 1843. $150.00

Of special Lincoln interest on account of his Association with the Globe Hotel.

In a letter quoted in Nicolay and Hay's Life, Lincoln writing to Joshua F. Speed on May, 1843, says, "We are not keeping house, but boarding at the Globe Tavern, which is very well kept now by a Widow Lady of the name of Beck. Our Room and Boarding only costs us four dollars a week," etc., etc.

Fine "Lincoln and Logan" Autograph.

690. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Autograph agreement in Lincoln's handwriting signed "Logan and Lincoln." Written on the back of an order from one of their Clients reading "Logan and Lincoln. Dear Sirs. Please pay to James Burtle out of the proceeds of a Judgment obtained by me against John C. Cloyd, the amount of his account against me and this shall be your sufficient warrant. Thomas Clements, Springfield, March 19, 1845." On back of this Lincoln has written "We accept the within on condition that Burtle's Account is not to exceed Ten Dollars, and agree to pay accordingly, when the amount of the judgment comes to our hands. Logan and Lincoln, March 19th, 1845." Underneath this Lincoln has written in pencil "The Clerk will please pay Mr. Burtle Ten Dollars out of the Judgment Clement vs. Cloyd and take in and file this order Logan and Lincoln." 2 pages. 8vo. Springfield, 1845. $100.00

Very fine "Logan and Lincoln" Specimen.

VERY FINE LINCOLN AND HERNDON AUTOGRAPH.

691. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Praecipe and Affidavit entirely in Lincoln's handwriting, in the petition for Division of the Real Estate of Samuel Little, deceased: "ABRAHAM LINCOLN *being first duly sworn, states on oath that a petition is intended to be filed in the Circuit Court of the County aforesaid, at its next term, by the parties and for the object above indicated; and that as affiant is informed and believes, the residence of the said defendants Phoebe Jane Basford and Samuel Basford is unknown to said petitioners, and that they can not on reasonable diligence be found. An unusual Lincoln Autograph in which he signs twice as "Abraham Lincoln" once as "A. Lincoln" and once as "Lincoln and Herndon."

692. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Affidavit of Thomas Johnson the Plaintiff in a suit against Thomas B. Wickham to recover payment for work and labor done for him. Asks the Court to postpone the case till next term in order that Plaintiff might produce his only Witness. At end is the acknowledgment of the affidavit by Judge David Davis, Lincoln's Friend and Executor. 2 pp. Folio. Sangamon County, 1854. $75.00

Very fine Specimen.

With over 30 lines filled in in Lincoln's handwriting, and also a 3 line receipt signed "A. Lincoln." Large folio. Sangamon Co., Illinois, June 25, 1855. $175.00

To Secure a Mortgage of $970.32 on the property two notes were executed by Nathaniel Hay and his son JOHN HAY. Receipt for the payment of the Notes is recorded by Lincoln on the Margin of the Deed. John Hay after graduating from Brown studied Law at Springfield and accompanied Lincoln to Washington in 1861, as his Private Secretary.

OLD SPRINGFIELD SCANDALS.

694. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Bill of Exceptions in the Case of Richardson and Hopkins vs. Joel Johnson. In Lincoln's writing throughout. 7 pages. Folio. (Springfield about 1855.) $350.00

A very interesting Narrative intimately associated with Lincoln's Home Town. He appeared in the interest of Joel Johnson the Landlord of the "City Hotel," Springfield. Lincoln very quaintly describes how two Wine Growers or Drummers of GREENE Co., Illinois, lodged at the City Hotel and deposited three thousand Dollars with the Landlord to keep in his Safe till the morning. They occupied the same room and carefully locked the door, and having some cash amounting to over Four hundred Dollars on hand, deposited them in the hind pocket of their "Pantaloons" which they hung over the back of a Chair for Safety. In the Morning the door was open and the money gone. Lincoln's Client was assessed by the Judge $286 damages and the Case was promptly appealed by his Counsel.

A splendid Lincoln Autograph containing over 200 lines.

UNIQUE ILLINOIS POLITICAL LETTER, 1856.

695. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. A. L. S. to Hon. J. M. Palmer. "Dear Sir: It is our judgment that whether you do or not finally stand as a Candidate for Congress, it is better for you to not to publicly decline for a while. It is a long time to the election, and what may turn up no one can tell. Yours truly A. Lincoln." Also signed by Richard Yates, W. H. Herndon (of the Law Firm of Herndon and Lincoln) and Wm. Jayne. 4to, half green morocco. Springfield, August 1st, 1856. $275.00

Served in the war with Generals Pope and Grant until Sept. 1864. writing of Lincoln and signed by him in three places "McWILLIAMS AND LINCOLN" as Attorneys for the Defendant. 3 pages. Folio. Springfield (1855). $300.00

A Rather Scandalous Law suit regarding the Purchase of Lots in the JAMES ADAMS Addition to Springfield in which the defendant claimed he was cheated. Lincoln's engagements with Gen. James Adams and his land titles were numerous and highly spirited. THE AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURE OF Mc WILLIAMS AND LINCOLN SEEMS TO BE UNIQUE, THE PARTNERSHIP PROBABLY APPLYING TO THIS CASE ONLY. LINCOLN HAVING BEEN BROUGHT IN ON ACCOUNT OF HIS HOSTILITY TO THE ADAMS TITLES, WHICH AT THE TIME WAS A SUBJECT OF COMMON NOTORIETY.

697. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Very long Autograph Brief entirely in Lincoln's writing, in the Case of THOMAS ASPINWALL against Thomas Lewis, Willis H. Johnson and John B. Moffatt trading as "Lewis Johnson and Co." 7 pages. Folio. In the Circuit Court of Sangamon County, Illinois, 1856. $350.00

An unusually fine document, written entirely by Lincoln and signed with the firm name "LINCOLN AND HERNDON." This is interesting considering that Lincoln was then the Senior partner and the work of preparing briefs was usually done by the younger member of the firm, or a clerk.

698. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in the suit of William J. Chamblin against the Springfield Marine and Fire Insurance Co. for the recovery of $10,000. A MOST REMARKABLE LINCOLN LETTER.

704. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. A highly important Historical Letter. Written at the most critical period of the Civil War by President Lincoln to Gen. N. P. Banks just after he had secretly entrusted him with the Command of a strong Expedition to New Orleans and had been assured by him that he was ready to start within the week. Lincoln's Remonstrance with him for his vacillation is couched in his most sardonic and ironic vein, although assuring him at the same time that he was not writing in an ill-natured spirit but quite the reverse, but concluding with the terse admonition that the mere publication of Banks' preposterous Requisition would be his utter Ruin in the estimation of the Public. L. S. 2 pages. 4to. Executive Mansion, Washington, Nov. 22, 1862. $500.00

"Executive Mansion Washington Nov. 22, 1862. My dear General Banks: Early last week you left me in high hope with your assurance that you would be off with your expedition at the end of that week, or early in this. It is now the end of this, and I have just been overwhelmed and confounded with the sight of a requisition made by you, which, I am assured, cannot be filled and got off within an hour short of two months! I enclose you a copy of the requisition, in some hope that it is not genuine—that you have never seen it.

My dear General, this expanding, and piling up of impedimenta, has been so far, almost our ruin, and will be our final ruin, if it is not abandoned. If you had the articles of this requisition upon the wharf, with the necessary animals to make them of any use, and forage for the animals, you could not get vessels together in two weeks to carry the whole, to say nothing of your twenty thousand men; and, having the vessels, you could not put the cargoes aboard, in two weeks more. And after all, where you are going you have no use for them. When you parted with me, you had no such ideas in your mind—I know you had not, or you could not have expected to be off, so soon as you said. You must get back to something like the plan you had then, or your expedition is a failure before you start. You must be off before Congress meets. You would be better off any where, and especially where you are going, for not having a thousand wagons doing nothing but hauling forage to feed the animals that draw them and taking at least two thousand men to care for the wagons and animals who otherwise might be two thousand good soldiers.

NOW DEAR GENERAL, DO NOT THINK THIS IS AN ILL-NATURED LETTER IT IS THE VERY REVERSE. THE SIMPLE PUBLICATION OF THIS REQUISITION WOULD RUIN YOU. Very truly your friend, A. LINCOLN.

705. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Interesting Letter signed from PRESIDENT LINCOLN to Joseph A. Gilmore, War Governor of New Hampshire, who at the time was actively engaged in raising New State Troops for the War. "My dear Governor Gilmore. I thank you very heartily for your kind invitation to visit Concord, and especially for the exceedingly cordial terms in which you have conveyed it. I very much regret that I cannot at present accept it. I am by no means certain that I can leave Washington at all this Summer. THE EXACTING NATURE OF MY OFFICIAL DUTIES RENDERS IT EXCEEDINGLY IMPROBABLE. I assure you however that I am none the less sincerely grateful for your kind intentions and for the expressions of personal good will contained in your letter. I am very truly yours, A. LINCOLN. 2 pages. 8vo. Executive Mansion, Washington, Aug. 7, 1863. $100.00

The same evil spirit . . . is evident again at work and in* the most malignant form too—probably anticipating that by this time Congress might be turning their attention to my sad and unfortunate case . . . In my indignation—last evening, if means had allowed I would have sent a telegram to our good friend Col. Forney that 'Mrs. Lincoln was unacquainted with such a person.'" Etc., etc. Signed "Mary Lincoln." 4 pages. 8vo. Frankfurt on Maine, 1869. $50.00

732. MARCHANT, E. D.. Historical Portrait Painter. Executed the Portrait of President Lincoln for the Council Chamber of Independence Hall, Philadelphia. Very interesting A. L. S. to Daniel Huntington the Artist describing from Memory his Recollections of Lincoln's appearance. "The eyes of Prest. Lincoln were of bluish grey or rather greyish blue; for without being positive, the blue ray was always visible. His Complexion was sallow of the brown shade. His hair of a very dark brown. I would be glad to aid you in other traits, but, though indelibly impressed on my mind during a residence of four months at the White House, they are the most difficult to DESCRIBE that I ever knew. With an Individuality the most strongly marked such was the flexibility of his Features or of the Muscles governing them, he was seldom twice alike. Hence the endless variety observable in the photographs we have of him. Of the white Cravat I can speak more distinctly. He rarely wore it, but in some instances had done so, among others at some weddings. This decided me to adopt it for its better pictorial effect. The scant neck-tie he usually wore seemed in his case, utterly unsuited to a portrait; its sharp black line, like a gash seemed to sever the Head from the body, it appalled me." 3 pp. 8vo, with envelope. 903. OGLESBY, RICHARD JAMES. Senator from Illinois, Brig-Gen. in the Civil War and many years associated with Abraham Lincoln. Very fine Autograph Letter, to his friend Thomas Donaldson, entirely on Lincoln and politics in Illinois. "My dear Old Friend. Early in the Spring of 1858, Circuit Court was being held in Urbana, Ill. MR. LINCOLN was attending the Court in his Annual Round of the Circuit. I went up from Decatur in a buggy with a lwyer friend to the Court. While there the Question arose of a Candidate for Congress in our District, composed of 15 counties running from Decatur and south along the Wabash River and South-East Illinois about 100 or 125 miles. A strong Democratic Region interspersed with a good many Old Whigs, nearly all of whom were from the Southern States, and all both Democrats and Whigs were rather pro-Slavery in feeling, or more correctly stated were very much opposed to Abolitionism and very suspicious of Republicanism. Douglas had helped them to make the case as bad as possible black Republicans. The District was, or had been since 1854, about 4,000 to 5,000 Democratic Majority. It was not very good territory for Republican Success. A good many of us were together at Urbana Anti-Nebraska Men, Republicans and Anti-Slavery Old Whigs. I had been, as had MR. LINCOLN of course Anti-Slavery Old Whigs." etc. ..... In one of our walks together the subject of going frankly before the people and trusting to their good sense and good heart, when frankly and openly appealed to in behalf of Justice, Right and Liberty. MR. LINCOLN, in his mild, stern way said: "REMEMBER, DICK, TO KEEP CLOSE TO THE PEOPLE. THEY ARE ALWAYS RIGHT AND WILL MISLEAD NO ONE." ..... I have given you the substance of the cirumstances that brought forth the Remark you referred to and which I now give to you correctly. 2 pages, 8vo, with envelope. Elk Hart, Ill. Unique Lincoln item unnoticed by all his Bibliographers. He says: "I beg of you my Republican Friends, don't spoil the name of Abraham Lincoln as Candidate for President; because I am quite sure Mr. Lincoln cannot be elected President, as I well believe Mr. Lincoln will be a successful Candidate for Vice-President in the same ticket with John C. Fremont." The three preliminary pages give an account of "The Child's Comedy, or the Gambols of the Monkeys at the Charleston Convention" in which Stephen A. It cost me four days' hard and telling work—such as I hope not to pass through again for years—four days in the midst of last week—* THE MOST MOMENTOUS PERIOD IN OUR ANNALS SINCE THE DISCOVERY OF THE NEW WORLD. I think you will like my honest attempt to celebrate the fall of a good man (whom I never liked in my life, and from whose policy, in many respects I differ now). You will recognize my original—the Horatian Ode of Andrew Marvell 'Upon Cromwell's Return from Ireland,' a noble production in a magnificent measure, which scarcely admits of weakness, it is so simple and so compact. If you can say a good word for me in the 'Press' do so; if not, don't. In any event, yours in haste, R. H. Stoddard Custom House, N. Y. April 18, '65." Also a letter from Stoddard to C. H. Hart, the Lincoln Bibliographer, dated January 21, '67, telling him he was unable to lay his hand upon a copy of the ode at that time, and says: "The Edition was 1500 copies as far as I remember. I know it cost me (the verse) 3 days' hard work and that it paid me nary a red."

"How often since that dark and chilly Saturday—that dripping April day, now fifteen years bygone—my heart has entertain'd the dream, the wish, to give of Abraham Lincoln's death its own special thought and memorial. Yet now the sought for opportunity offers. I find my notes incompetent (Why, for truly profound themes, is statement so idle? why does the right phrase never offer?) and the fit tribute I dreamed of waits unprepared as ever. .....

"It belongs to these States in their entirety—not the North only but the South, perhaps most tenderly and devoutly to the South of all, for there really this man's birth-stock. ..... Why should I not say that thence his manliest traits, his universality, his canny easy ways and words upon the surface, his inflexible determination and courage at heart. Have you never realized it my friends, that Lincoln, though grafted on the West, is essentially, in personnel and character, a Southern contribution?"

An extremely fine and very interesting Collection of over 3000 Civil War Envelopes; the great Majority being issued by Sympathizers of the Federal Cause, the Rest being the Product of Individuals fervently supporting the Confederate Government. Amongst them are hundreds of portraits of LINCOLN, SEWARD, DOUGLAS, ELLSWORTH, WINFIELD SCOTT, GENERAL LYON, MCCLELLAN, GEN. WOOL, GEORGE WASHINGTON, who was much used by both sides, JEFFERSON DAVIS, BEAUREGARD, FREMONT, BROWNELL, the Avenger of Ellsworth, GENS. PRENTISS, CORCORAN, ROBERT ANDERSON SIEGEL, BUTLER, DIX, CAPTAIN DUPONT, BURNSIDE, HALLECK, FOOTE, BUELL, WORDEN OF THE MERRIMAC, "PARSON" BROWNLOW, BLENKER, ROSECRANZ, BANKS, SHERMAN, PORTER, FARRAGUT, GRANT and other well known soldiers in the war. Pictorial Plates of Each of the Southern and Northern States with their Arms and Emblems are included with similar designs of almost every Large City. Hundreds of Regimental Camp-Scenes, Battle Incidents and Naval Engagements are also comprised, all brilliantly colored, and many of them accompanied by Contemporary Newspaper Cuttings in prose and verse, more or less appropriate to the Illustration. The 150 portraits of Lincoln are particularly interesting and of considerable Historical Value being nearly all original, uncopyrighted designs by the publishers. The Death of COLONEL ELLSWORTH—or Assassination as it was then considered, is represented by many specimens and is no doubt a complete Collection of all the Ellsworth pieces issued at the time.

The portraits of Grant depict him with a Beard like a Patriarch while Gen. Sherman's Face shows as clean shaved as possible. Quite a large number of the Envelopes bear the head of one of the Federal Commanders surrounded by a Map of the Field of his Operations. The intensely bitter expression of Sectional Feeling is abundantly displayed in the very large number of Caricatures belittling the Confederate Army and its Heads.
